Biotype Diagnostic GmbH is an innovative biotech company headquartered in Dresden. The company develops, manufactures and distributes molecular diagnostic kits. The assays support diagnosis and therapy in oncology, hemato-oncology, dermatology and forensics.

For more information visit www.biotype.de/en/company/jobs.html

To enhance our team, we are currently looking for a

Student Employee - QC & Production (f/m)

Your Responsibilities

You will support our Quality Control and Production departments in the following areas:

- Assist with the creation of diverse documents (English/ German), e.g. standard operating procedures, process flows, diagrams and forms in Microsoft Office
- Support various research activities and quality control duties
- Prepare and translate English and German texts in e.g. the areas laboratory, production, quality control
- Occasionally you may support other departments

Your Profile

- Academic studies in biotech or a related field; alternatively, students with an IT background are encouraged to apply
- Competent user of MS Office applications, especially Word and PowerPoint
- Very good knowledge of MS Excel preferred
- Fluent in spoken and written English and German
- Motivated and hands-on mentality

Our basic conditions

- Starting date: as soon as possible
- Payment: Student employee (€ 10,- per hour)
- Working hours: 20 hours per week, flexible
- Location: Biotype (Dresden Hellerau)

The job description matches your expectations? Then please send your CV and motivation to:

HR@biotype-innovation.com